WE 'MAY' HAVE THE GOOD NEWS YOU'RE LOOKING FOR

The past year hasn't been filled with positive news, so we've gathered a couple of headlines you may have missed to raise your spirits.

Britain's loneliest dog found a home

A border collie named Bess was given the title of Britain's loneliest dog after spending 10 years at Last Chance Animal Rescue. After several meetings, Bess secured a home with a new family on the South Coast.

Record growth in renewable energy production

In the past year, a remarkable 90 per cent of global electricity installations used renewable energy sources such as solar and wind power.

WIN!

2021 marks our 10 year anniversary, and to celebrate we are giving 10 property owners the chance to sell their property for FREE!*

To be in with the chance of winning, all you need to do is collect our 12 monthly flyers that will be hitting your doormat over the course of 2021.

From January through to December, each month there will be new flyer that you must keep for your entry.

10 lucky winners will be chosen at random in January 2022.

To find out how to enter, visit www.inspiredagents.co.uk/competition

*£0 selling fees at Inspired Sales & Lettings. Solicitors fees and any additional fees will still be applicable.
